IOSH Managing Safely

Health and Safety Courses for Managers

Who should attend	Managers, Supervisors, Assessors, Safety Representatives or anyone required to manage health and safety in accordance with the company's safety policy and health and safety legislation.
Why you should attend	You wouldn't attempt any other aspect of your management role without training—why would you approach health and safety any differently?
What you will learn	A broad range of management skills to apply to safety and health issues
Expected outcomes	To be able to manage health and safety in the workplace.
Course content	• Why it is important to manage safety and your responsibilities as a manager • Risk assessments, types of risk assessment and how to do them • Risk controls, safe systems of work, personal protective equipment • Understanding responsibilities—requirements of the law, RIDDOR, health and safety management systems • Common hazards in the workplace e.g. chemicals, workstations, working at height, fire, noise, manual handling, stress, etc • Identifying basic, underlying and root causes of accidents; reporting and investigating accidents • Measuring performance—What it means, how to measure health and safety performance, and auditing • Impact of industry, controlling waste and pollution and environmental management systems
Accreditation	IOSH Accredited
Assessment	Multiple choice exam at the end of day 4, and a risk assessment project to be completed within 2 weeks of the end of the course
Venue	Peterborough – Almoners Hall, Peterborough Cathedral
Dates	4 days – Split week course – 2012 13, 14, 20, 21 February; 18, 19, 25, 26 June; 8, 9, 15, 16 October
Cost	£599 per person (plus VAT)
What's included	Certification, registration, exam , project and marking, refreshments and lunch, IOSH workbook
Recommended pre-requisites	IOSH Working Safely
Recommended follow-up courses	CIEH or HABC Level 4 Managing Safety in the Workplace

Archdeaconry House, Gravel Walk, Peterborough, PE1 1YU 01733 807779 info@rspsafety.co.uk
www.rspsafety.co.uk