Fire Marshal/Warden Training

Health and Safety Courses for Staff and Managers

Who should attend	Staff having some responsibility for fire safety: Fire Marshals, Fire Wardens
Why you should attend	In order to take charge of a situation you need to understand the steps you need to follow and what happens if it goes wrong
What you will learn	The nature of fire and comprehensive training for fire warden duties
Expected outcomes	To feel confident about taking charge of a situation and dealing with a fire emergency according to your company's policy
Course content	• The role of the fire marshal or fire warden and relevant legislation • The dangers of fire and the devastating disturbance it causes to business • Basic fire safety principles • Common causes of fire • Fire legislation and how to comply • Behaviour of people in a fire • Identifying hazards and ignition sources, means of escape; recognising misuse of fire fighting equipment and systems • Principles of fire drills and evacuation procedures • Type of fire extinguishers and the types of fire they can be effectively used on • Practical - use of extinguishers Optional Extra: Practical exercise incorporating group "virtual reality" exercise and handling fire extinguishers on live fires
Assessment	All Fire Marshals/Wardens are expected to take part in the practical exercise and hands on fire extinguisher practice.
Venue	Asset House, Lynchwood, Peterborough
Dates	2012: 2nd February; 8th May; 5th July; 4th October
Cost	£99 per person (plus VAT)
What's included	All course material and hire of equipment
Course duration	3.5 hours
Recommended pre-requisites	None
Recommended follow-up courses	Regular Refresher Training

Archdeaconry House, Gravel Walk, Peterborough, PE1 1YU
01733 807779 info@rspsafety.co.uk
www.rspsafety.co.uk