

CIEH Level 3 Award in Risk Assessment Principles & Practice

Health and Safety Courses for Staff and Managers

Who should attend	Designed for anyone with the responsibility to conduct risk assessments
Why you should attend	It is particularly useful for managers and supervisors but it will be equally beneficial to any other personnel needing the necessary depth of understanding to enable them to carry out risk assessments
What you will learn	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The benefits of good safety management and socio-economic costs• An understanding of the reasons for using risk assessment and the different types of risk assessment• An understanding of the legal requirements for risk assessment• How to conduct risk assessments (assuming you have the necessary technical knowledge in relation to the activities/environments/issues)• How to organise and implement a risk assessment programme or contribute to an existing risk assessment programme• How to participate in the identification of specific training needs raised through risk assessment• Assist employers in meeting legal requirements and promote improved standards of health and safety in their workplace.
Course content	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Legislation• Principles of risk assessment• Prioritising risk• Controls• Documentation• Monitoring controls• Risk assessment in practice
Accreditation	QCA Accredited
Assessment	Assignment and self-evaluation
Venue	Peterborough
Dates	Call for update
Cost	£220 per person (plus VAT)
What's included	Course book, certification, refreshments and lunch
Course duration	1 day plus time for assignment in the workplace (1 – 2 days)
Recommended pre-requisites	CIEH or HABC Level 2 Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace
Recommended follow-up courses	CIEH or HABC Level 4 Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace