

RSP Safety MasterClass - Accident Investigation

Health and Safety Courses for Staff/Managers/Business Owners

Who should attend

These Masterclasses are for those of you who have been carrying out accident investigation for a while and so have some experience and general understanding of the principles but you would like some reassurance that what you are doing is right.

This course is suitable for those responsible for investigating accidents in most industries including construction.

Why you should attend

Maybe you just feel that you have created too much paper work

What you will learn

- A re-examination of the basic legal requirements of 'accident investigation'
- Investigation techniques
- Fault Tree Analysis, Failure Mode and Effect Analysis, Event Tree Analysis
- A look at examples carried out by experienced safety practitioners

Assessment

Assignment and self-evaluation

Venue

The Benedict Rooms, Peterborough Cathedral

Dates

26th March; 28th July; 8th December

Cost

£99 per person (+ VAT)

What's included

Refreshments, Certificate, course notes, telephone and e-mail support for 12 months

Course duration

½ day

Recommended pre-requisites

Experience of carrying out straight forward accident investigations

Recommended follow-up courses

CIEH or HABC Level 3 Health and Safety in the Workplace