

FIRE RISK ASSESSMENT AND STAFF TRAINING

What do you need to do to comply with the Fire Safety law?

As an employer you have a responsibility to ensure the general safety of your employees, and any visitors that have access to the workplace, in relation to fire hazards and general fire safety in the workplace. Whilst simplifying the law for most organisations the new legislation says each employer must:

New Legislation

- Make a suitable and sufficient assessment of the risks to people who use the premises
- Take action to make sure that the premises, in the context of general fire safety, are safe
- Arrange for the effective monitoring and review of the preventative and proactive measures

How RSP Safety Services can help

RSP Safety Services can help your business comply with the new legislation by carrying out your risk assessments in accordance with guides which have been published by the Department for Communities and Local Government.
